Project Extension

Due to the coronavirus emergency, several events scheduled for spring 2020 had been cancelled. This forced the consortium to ask for an extension of the duration of the project. Following the approval by the European Commission, the end of the project has been postponed to September 2021.

The partners are currently working to restore the seminars. Next seminar, to be held in Burgos (Spain) on 23rd, 24th and 25th September, will be live-streamed. Seminars in Rome and Sofia are also planned in autumn 2020, participation modalities will be soon confirmed.

EC granted a 9 month extension

The project will end in September 2021.

European and National Reports

A new content has been published on our website: the reports on the right to family reunification and on judicial cooperation in the field on fight against terrorism. The reports have been prepared in the framework of the review of the European legal framework on fundamental rights. The two European level reports have been drafted by UBU professors, while other six national reports have been prepared by national experts and professors, with the aim to make a comparison among the different national contexts in Bulgaria, Italy and Spain.

Presentations Held in Milan

The presentations held on the occasion of the L4R seminar in Milan have been uploaded on the project website. The seminar had been organised by Milan Bar Association on 20th, 21st and 22nd February within the Court of the City. In their presentations, the speakers addressed the topics at the core of the project: from the role of lawyers in the protection of human rights, to immigration law and protection of minors as well as the relation between fight against terrorism, on one side, and human rights and freedom of religion, on the other.

Second Project Seminar in Burgos

The University of Burgos (Spain) is going to organise the second training seminar. This seminar, initially planned in early April 2020, due to the Covid-19 pandemic has been postponed to 23rd, 24th and 25th September. In a time where travels are subject to many constraints and uncertainties, in order to ease the participation of foreign lawyers digital attendance will also be possible, while Spanish lawyers will attend in person, in compliance with all the needed safety measures. Applications are now open; the deadline is on 7th September.

Apply before 7th
September
2020!

*Two options:
digital vs. face-to-face attendance.*
